Communicating with home

We still use the telephone for quick calls. Newsletters and any other letters are sent home via pupil post. Letters go home to the oldest or the only child in the family. Parents can also be sent these via e-mail on request. Class Teachers use a closed Facebook group to share learning with families and an open one to communicate to the community. The Xpressions App sends messages and emails direct to you and is free to download and use. Teachers can meet with parents informally before and after school when appointments are to be made.

Intimate care

From time to time “accidents” involving soiling or wetting do happen. If this happens to your child, the staff will endeavour to deal with the situation as sensitively and discreetly as possible, and to keep you informed.

The action taken might include:-

- Nursery staff will clean and change your child into their spare clothes.
- Offering the child fresh clean clothes from a stock held in school, and the chance to wash or wipe themselves in private.
- Helping the child to clean up, if they are happy for this to happen, and if there is a suitable adult around to assist.
- Contacting parents or emergency contact to come to the school, or to take the child home, to clean up.

If your child has an ongoing condition or problem which is likely to make “accidents” an issue, do please discuss it with your child’s Class Teacher, Head teacher or the School Nurse.

Welcome from the Head Teacher

Dear Parent / Carer

Welcome to Dalry Primary School. Our school is small in comparison to many other schools as it only has two classes and a nursery and around 60 children in total. We work in partnership with Kells Primary. The staff and children show great enthusiasm and motivation for learning. We have a culture of mutual respect and the children are kind and caring. The school works with partners from around the community and looks for opportunities to use the links to enhance our curriculum.

Our handbook should provide you with all the information you should need but if you have any queries that the handbook does not answer, please get in touch.

In line with the Education Bill (2015) and the National Improvement Framework the schools aim is to ensure that all children are able to reach their full potential regardless of circumstances.

Kind regards

Brogan Murray
(Acting) Head Teacher

How the School Works

Class Organisation

For organisational purposes, schools are structured into classes. Each year it is the responsibility of the Headteacher to organise the class structure.

For more information, on School class sizes and grouping please visit www.dumgal.gov.uk/article/16646/School-class-sizes-and-groupings

There are between 21 and 25 children in each of our classes. This year (2024-2025) the classes are split into Primary P1 /2/3 and P4/5/6/7. Our Early Learning and Childcare provision (Nursery) provides places children from Dalry and the surrounding area including those children who may go onto Kells Primary.

For more information please see the Education Authority Handbook

Positive Behaviour and Celebrating Success

Our ethos works very much on the premise of respect and responsibility. Our three expectations are to be safe, be kind and be respectful. In line with the Scottish Governments Respect Me agenda all members of our community should be treated appropriately. We have a restorative approach towards behaviour management and encourage children to think about the link between actions and consequences. We have a golden nuggets board where we celebrate those children who are being good role models for their peers by being kind, safe or respectful.

We celebrate pupil success in and out of school. At assemblies we share achievements and children have the opportunity to bring in certificates, trophies or just explain to the rest of the school their personal achievement. The pupils' photographs plus brief explanation are then displayed on the Achievement Wall. We also share success at a special leavers' assemblies where all children's successes are celebrated.

For more information please see of the Education Authority Handbook

Curriculum for Excellence

Curriculum for Excellence (CfE), now known as 'Scotland's Curriculum,' is bringing learning to life in the way education is delivered for all 3-18 year olds in nursery, primary, secondary, at college and via workplace or community learning. It aims to respond and adapt flexibly to meet the needs of an ever changing and evolving world and Scotland's place within it. At its heart lies a constant commitment and drive towards excellence and equity, to raise standards, improve knowledge, develop skills for all learners and close the gap between the lowest and highest achievers by ensuring everyone has an equal opportunity to be successful, no matter what their background or circumstances. Ultimately, it aims to nurture children and young people as successful learners, confident individuals, effective contributors and responsible citizens.

Broad General Education

Children and young people work their way through Experiences and Outcomes in each of the five Curriculum Levels (Early, First, Second, Third, Fourth) and in each of the eight Curricular Areas. The five Curricular Levels span pre-school to the end of S3. This is the Broad General Education. Pupils progress at their own pace, working through the Experiences and Outcomes of the most appropriate level for them. Pupils will be supported in collecting evidence of their achievements, with a profile of these being produced in P7 and S3.

CfE also includes Languages, Expressive arts, Religious and moral education, Sciences, Social studies and Technologies. The responsibility for the curriculum offer in your school sits with the Headteacher.

Our curriculum follows the Curriculum for Excellence framework and focusses on the four capacities which are to create: Confident Individuals, Successful Learners, Responsible Citizens and Effective Contributors to society. We follow a framework of progressions in each of the curricular areas and focus our learning on the children, their prior experiences and the development of their world. We have an overall long term plan for learning which allows children and their teachers to focus on their interests as a starting point for each unit of learning. There are six main areas or curriculum organisers we focus our learning around each year. These include:

- Who we are
- Where we are in place and time
- How we express ourselves
- How the world works
- How we organise ourselves
- Sharing the planet

Using these curriculum organisers give children and their teachers the opportunity to plan units of work which encompass different subject areas in a coherent plan which lead to a specific goal.

We believe it is important to celebrate each child's strengths and each year look to work with partners to enrich the children's learning through providing opportunities for children to try different sports, environmental activities and clubs.

Parental Involvement and Engagement

Parent/Carers and the Parent Council

Every parent who has a child at our school is a member of the Parent Forum. The parent council is a group of parents who have chosen to represent the parent forum. As a member of the Parent Forum, each parent can expect to:

- Receive information about the school and its activities
- Hear about what partnership with parents means in our school
- Be invited to be involved in ways and times that suit you
- Identify issues you want the parent council to work on with the school
- Be asked your opinion by the parent council on issues relating to the school and education it provides
- Work in partnership with staff

Parentzone Scotland

<https://education.gov.scot/parentzone> information about the Curriculum and how you can be involved in your child's learning.

How is my child doing?

There will be several opportunities for you to discuss your child's progress. This may be through informal discussion with the teacher or at Parents' Nights/ Learning Conversations, formal reports or for some it may be through more formal, focussed meetings with other agencies.

Helping Your Child and Family Learning

Within the Partnership, we understand that parents / families / carers are the main educators of their child / children from birth onwards. All the things parents do with their children can be described as educational in that they will learn how to behave around others, learn / practice / perform skills and adapt to situations based on parental guidance. Family learning is actively encouraged as sharing a learning experience supports understanding. Learning together can raise self-esteem and confidence and can positively impact on family relationships. We aim to facilitate opportunities for families to learn together throughout the year. Homework expectations will be shared by your child's class teacher. Homework should secure a child's knowledge and understanding of a concept which has been previously taught in class and will be nothing new. As a school we fully understand that learning happens in many different ways. We will provide opportunities for home learning, but these are not compulsory.

Support for All

Support for Learners

All children receive support at school and nursery to help them learn. 'Additional support for learning' is how we describe any support that is extra or different to the help that most children receive. Most of this additional support is provided by teachers in mainstream classes, focussed on learning and support to be fully involved in school life. For the majority of children and young people this will be delivered in a mainstream classroom supported by their classroom teacher for a few this will mean some additional support alongside the classroom teacher, and for a very few this will be part-time or full-time provision in a school with a learning centre or an inclusion base.

Child Protection

All children have the right to be protected from harm, abuse and neglect. The vision for all children and young people in Dumfries and Galloway is that they should be: safe, healthy, achieving, nurtured, active, respected and responsible and included. Schools and front-line education and child care services will play an important role in ensuring all children and young people are safe and well.

Further information can be found at <http://www.dumgal.gov.uk/article/16640/Support-for-children-and-families>

Parents, carers and pupils have a key role in keeping the school community safe. We would therefore urge parents to share any information which would keep everyone safe, and to support and encourage their child(ren) to do the same.

Serious accidents are few, but should one occur your child will be immediately taken either to your doctor or to hospital, if necessary, and you or your emergency

We cannot stress enough the importance of supplying the school with the relevant information we require in such a situation, i.e. your own home and work number and a telephone number of an emergency contact. Please remember that if your child stays in more than one home setting contact details should take account of this.

Health Care (inc First Aid)

Many children will require their health care needs to be met at sometime within the nursery/school environment, for most children this will be for short periods of time only, but for some children this may require more long-term planning and support. If your child has any health care needs, please contact the school to discuss arrangements.
